HAZARDOUS MATERIALS

This list is provided as a courtesy in order to assist you in properly disposing of your hazardous wastes. This is not a comprehensive list! There are MANY other similar companies available. We are NOT making recommendations as to the quality of these companies or their prices. You must conduct your own due diligence to determine the fitness of any of these companies for your purposes.

Hazardous Waste Pickup Services

The Solid Waste District Program cannot accept business hazardous material as we do not possess a hazardous wastes permit. We can legally accept only material generated by a household. Materials generated through household activities are exempt from the laws governing non-household material and our program is therefore limited to household-generated materials only.
